REDLANDS HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF '65 CELEBRATES 50TH REUNION WEEKEND WITH BIG SURPRISES

On the weekend of October 16-18th, a record 270 people/guests of the Class of '65 of Redlands High School reunited with classmates, spouses, teachers and guests for a 'best-ever' three day celebration. Beginning with a Friday night Pizza Party at Diane Kramer McCalmon and Bill McCalmon's beautiful home, all gathered poolside for a casual meet-and-greet event. Showcase for the evening was class member, Danny Faragher, who continues his career as a professional musician; Danny played many of his hit songs and engaged the audience in some old standards as 'sing-alongs.' Another classmate, Nick Souleles, provided 60's music background tracks, as well as taking many video shots which he combined with the rest of the weekend activities and posted to a YouTube clip.

Saturday began with a great golf tournament in Beaumont in the morning and then moved forward to the big event in the late afternoon, "Vintage Redlands, Forever Young" which was held at The Burrage Mansion, owned by classmates, Tim and Carol Rochford. Seven vintage cars were showcased on the front of the property and viewed as attendees entered. In the spacious entrance hall of Burrage, there were photo displays of past reunions, Honorariums for class Veterans who had passed as a result of the Vietnam War, and a Memorium area for deceased class members. The back portico of Burrage provided the ideal space for a cocktail hour including incredible appetizers provided by Gourmet Passions Catering which also prepared the amazing dinner and desserts in the lovely tent area with vintage table decor of individual orange crates lit by twinkle lights, highlighting a block 'R' and surrounded by oranges and blossoms. The ends of the crates were personalized with pictures of classmates and RHS events, overlaid on original local crate art.

As the evening proceeded, classmates were entertained by Redlands' own, TheTornadoes, original surf band. At the initial break came the first surprise, a presentation of and to the Class Vietnam Veterans shepherded by classmate and Vet himself, Gregory Gomez. He asked all the class who were Vietnam Vets to come to the front whereby he presented them each with a handmade Memorial Neckpiece honoring their service. Each of the approximate 30 gave his/her name, branch of service and how they served. At the end of the presentation, they were given the Heroes' Welcome they didn't receive in the '60's by the teary audience with their cheers, followed by everyone reciting the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Class of '65 has supported kids' programs at Burrage for the past three reunions. This time the traditional 50/50 Raffle benefitted a new program, Mansion Memories, designed to give terminally ill and stressed kids' and their families a daylong event of fun activities. Dr. Ellen Timothy, Director of the Rochford Foundation-Burrage Mansion spoke of the variety of programs and Dianna Lawson, Executive Director of Mansion Memories, detailed the events planned for the specific Mansion Memories programs ahead.

Tim Rochford had been privately planning and plotting a surprise entertainer for the class for several months. As working with entertainers goes, his plans were fraught with the usual, and unusual, difficulties of trying to secure the person he had chosen. Ever a fan of the 60's signature song, The House of the Rising Sun, Tim's patience, temerity and plans finally paid off and he was able to secure the legendary, Eric Burdon, former lead singer of The Animals. Eric was introduced by Tim and proceeded to sing 5 songs, backed by The Tornadoes, to a group of screaming, oldsters who believed for 20 minutes that they were 18 again!! What a night! What a party!

Sunday found many at Connie Hart Pearce's lovely home for the traditional after-party breakfast/brunch, decompressing over coffee and reminiscing over the events of the weekend. A group of about twenty classmates and spouses headed to San Pedro for a seven day cruise to Mexico to continue the glow of the reunion events. Happily, reports back by members said that they were able to avoid Hurricane Patricia.

Redlands loves a great party and this one will be hard to top!!

Committee members who were involved putting together the details over several months were: Tim Rochford, Julie Kalman Fuller (Chair/Steering Comm.) Diane Kramer McCalmon (Steering Comm.), Linda Kooiman Serros (Steering Comm.) Connie Hart Pearce, Rita Cox Elenburg, Joy Brown Carlson, Linda Luetcke Bennecke, Jan Hawes Vickers, Lucy Villafan Saldana, Gregory Gomez, Joe Frink, Dyanna Cridelich, Peggy Beauregard, Steve Hauser, Bobby Bellue, Virginia Leon Gautier, Jim Eastwood, Ellen Timothy, with many other classmates assisting on the day of the Reunion.
